WORLD PANCREAS FORUM

6–7 FEBRUARY 2020
BERN, SWITZERLAND

Sponsoring concept

1. Organiser – Swiss Pancreas Foundation

The Swiss Pancreas Foundation, headquartered in Bern, is an independent non-profit organisation created by a group of Bernese to benefit the Swiss population. The Foundation supplies information on pancreatic diseases to the general public, patients and their relatives. It also establishes contact between patients, specialists and institutions in this field of medicine and aims to become an important informational hub for pancreatic matters and increase understanding of the disease over the long term.

2. Occasion

In 2020, the foundation will host the third World Pancreas Forum from 6 – 7 February 2020 in Bern. The event will address current topics on the pancreas in an international context. Experts in the field and numerous other qualified speakers will be invited to give talks and take part in discussions. Approximately 400 guests are expected to participate in this high-profile event, including industry representatives.

The main theme of this year's event is the Pancreatic malignancies.
